

The Australian Society for Medical Research

The Queensland branch of the ASMR and Queensland Health are proud to announce the

QUEENSLAND HEALTH & MEDICAL RESEARCH AWARDS 2010

These prestigious Awards recognise excellence in all areas of health-related research performed in Queensland. A new category has been created for Clinical Researchers. Thus the four categories are:

1. Post-graduate Student Award.

Eligibility - enrolled students and within one year of completing a higher degree.

2. Post-doctoral Researcher Award.

Eligibility - between one and five years (inclusive) of completing a higher degree.

3. Senior Researcher Award.

Eligibility - between six and ten years (inclusive) of completing a higher degree.

4. Clinical Researcher Award.

Eligibility – clinicians within ten years (inclusive) of completing a higher degree/specialist training.

Application Deadline: Thursday 15th April 2010

Please see the ASMR website for complete information on eligibility and application instructions:
<http://www.asmr.org.au/MRWQld.html>

Finalists in the Post-doctoral (3), Senior (3) and Clinical Researcher (3) Award categories will be selected to give oral presentations at the Queensland Institute of Medical Research (QIMR) on Tuesday 1st June 2010. Finalists (6) for the Post-graduate Student Award are required to register and give oral presentations at the Post-Graduate Student Conference held at the Institute for Molecular Bioscience (IMB), The University of Queensland on Wednesday 2nd June 2010. Presentations to the finalists and winners will be made during the ASMR Medical Research Week[®] Dinner on Friday 4th June 2010.

Enquiries about these awards are to be directed to the Convenor, ASMR Queensland Health & Medical Research Awards Sub-Committee (antiopi.varelias@qimr.edu.au).